

RPC FACILITIES

Seven Hills, NSW

CASE STUDY

LOCATION

24 Powers Road, Seven Hills,
NSW, Australia

FACTORY AREA

2,200 m<sup>2</sup>

TOTAL EMPLOYEES

40

REFERENCE NO

MAN1.2

RPC's Seven Hills facility undertakes the fabrication and sustainment work for ballistic curtains (spall liners) for the Australian Army M113 Armoured Personnel Carriers and the Bushmaster and also fabrication and sustainment work on specialist military equipment, such as floating bridge sections (MGB) for the Department of Defence.

In addition to this RPC Seven Hills designs, constructs and maintains specialist tooling, such as filament winding equipment for other operations within the group.

Skilled labour includes:

- Boilermakers
- Welders
- Semi skilled labourers
- Painters
- Fitters/Machinists
- Apprentices

Capabilities:

- General machining (lathe, mill, drill)
- General welding/fabrication (steel and aluminum)
- Custom machine design and assembly
- Sand blasting/spray painting
- Refurbishment of vehicles and plant

Creating in composites