

RPC FACILITIES

Broadmeadow, NSW

CASE STUDY

LOCATION

56 Clyde Street,
Broadmeadow, NSW,
Australia

FACTORY AREA

10,587 m²

OPEN LAND AREA

5,870 m²

TOTAL EMPLOYEES

80-100

REFERENCE NO

MAN 1.3

RPC Broadmeadow was acquired in 2004 as a complementary adjunct to the existing RPC operations. It has a substantial engineering group that covers the disciplines of mechanical and electrical engineering, materials science, and industrial design, along with associated state of the art design and testing equipment. Business development, project management and other business related services for the Transport and PCM operations are also located at this facility.

Capabilities:

- Lighting system assembly
- Modesty panels and toilet module assembly
- Seat and luggage rack assembly
- Tool and pattern making
- Filament winding 1 x 12m
- Test laboratory

- Infusion & vacuum consolidation
- Prepreg moulding
- Hand lamination

Creating in composites