- 5.4 Prices in the Contract are those the Company applies at the relevant time. Such prices are based on the cost of materials, packaging, costs, insurance, sorting and stacking charges, cartage and other carrier charges, rate of goods, wares and merchandise, applicable taxes and duties and other charges affecting the cost of production of the Goods or provision of Services at the relevant date and any variations to those underlying costs at any time will be to the Customer's account. Prices are adjusted from time to time by any additions or deductions are treated as a Variation under these Terms and Conditions.
- 5.5 This Agreement shall be completely independent of all other contracts between the parties and all payments due to the Customer hereunder shall be paid when due and shall not be set off or applied against any money due or claimed to be due from the Company to the Customer on account of any other transaction or claim.

6. PAYMENT

- 6.1 Unless otherwise agreed in writing by the Company, the Customer must pay for the Goods and Services within 30 days of the date of invoice without deduction, set-off or counter-claim. Payment of invoices will not be deemed to be made until the payment funds have been fully cleared.
- 6.2 The Company reserves the right at the Company's discretion and without being liable for any loss or damage to decline to supply Goods or Services under a Contract if the Customer is in Default as per clause 16.1.
- 6.3 If the Customer fails to pay the price in accordance with the Contract, the Company may (without prejudice to any other rights hereunder or at law) charge interest on the overdue amount at the Default Interest Rate from the date the payment was due until the date payment is received in full.
- 6.4 The Customer charges to the Company all of its rights, title and interest in any Service Related Assets as security for the due and punctual payment of the Amount Payable. The charge operates as a first ranking, fixed charge.

7. TITLE AND RISK

- 7.1 Risk in the Goods passes to the Customer once the Goods leave the Company's premises. Legal and equitable title to the Goods only passes to the Customer when it has paid the Amount Payable in full. Where payment is made progressively then title to that part of the Goods for which payment has been made by the Customer will pass to the Customer, notwithstanding that the remainder of the Goods have not yet been Delivered.

- 7.2 Until such time as the Amount Payable is paid in full, the Customer holds the Goods as bailee for the Company, and the Customer must make good of the Goods in a manner which makes it clear that the Goods are the property of the Company.
- 7.3 The Customer may only install or affix the Goods to other products (so that they become an Accession to those other products) or use or permit the Goods to be manufactured, processed, assembled, comingled or otherwise dealt with (so that they become Processed Goods), or affix the Goods to land so that they become fixtures, in the ordinary course of its normal business.
- 7.4 If the Customer is in Default, in addition to the Company's other rights under these Terms and Conditions, or any other applicable law, the Company may:
- i) take possession of the Goods or the Processed Goods (as applicable);
 - ii) remove any Goods which have become an Accession or fixture;
 - iii) enter upon the Customer's premises (or any other place where the Goods or Processed Goods are located) to give effect to sub clauses (i) & (ii); and
 - iv) disposal by way of lease.
- 7.5 Unless the Company agrees in writing, the Company will allocate and apply amounts received from the Customer in the following order:
- i) in or towards payment of any part of the Amount Payable which is not part of the price of any Goods, in the order in which those amounts were incurred; and
 - ii) Secondly, in or towards payment of the price of the Goods in the order in which those Goods were invoiced.

8. DELIVERY

- 8.1 Unless the Company expressly agrees in writing, the Company will deliver the Goods to the Customer's address specified in the purchase order. The Company will use reasonable endeavours to deliver the Goods by the Contract's delivery date (if any) but does not guarantee it will do so. If such delivery is prevented by the Customer or postponed by reason of Force Majeure, the Company shall be entitled to an extension of time to deliver upon the most practical date thereafter and be entitled to payment as if the goods were delivered.
- 8.2 The Customer may promptly inspect the goods on delivery to the site and must check the Goods delivered against the Contract. If the Goods are not in accordance with the Contract, the Customer must notify the Company within 48 hours of delivery. If the Customer does not do so it is deemed to have accepted the Goods as delivered and will not be entitled to make a claim in respect of them. This subclause does not apply to the extent that the supply of Goods is to a Consumer and the application of this subclause would be contrary to any consumer protections afforded.
- 8.3 The Customer must not return any Goods to the Company without obtaining the Company's written authorization.
- 8.4 The cost of packing shall be an additional charge to the Customer.
- 8.5 If the Contract provides that the Goods are subject to tests and/or inspection, such tests or inspection may only be undertaken prior to delivery to the Customer and shall be final.

9. DELAYS

- 9.1 If the commencement or progress of the Contract or delivery of the Goods or Services is, at the Customer's request, delayed, suspended or postponed, then the Customer shall be liable for all claims, demands, losses, costs or expenses suffered or incurred by the Company as a result of such delay, suspension or postponement.
- 9.2 If the Company is or will be delayed by an event in a manner which has or will prevent the Company from achieving delivery of the goods, then the Company may claim an extension of time within 10 business days of the Company becoming aware of anything which will or is likely to delay the delivery of goods.

10. WORKING DOCUMENTS AND TOOLING

- 10.1 All Tooling and Working Documents made, developed or purchased by the Company in order to supply the Goods or Services are the property of, and will remain in the custody of, the Company. The Company will retain the Tooling for a period of at least three years following the latest order which requires their use.
- 10.2 If the Customer provides Working Documents or Tooling, the Customer warrants that:
- i) the Working Documents and Tooling are accurate, complete and fit for the purposes of the Contract; and
 - ii) use of the Working Documents and Tooling by the Company for the purposes of the Contract will not infringe any third party's intellectual property.
- 10.3 Whilst the Customer's Working Documents and Tooling are in the Company's possession, the risk of loss or damage to them is at the Customer's risk and the Customer must insure their full value against all risks (and shall produce evidence of such insurance upon being requested to do so by the Company).
- 10.4 Irrespective of whether the Working Documents or Tooling are supplied by the Company or by the Customer, alteration to the Working Documents or Tooling to meet the requirements of the Customer and the replacement or renewal of Tooling shall be paid for by the Customer.
- 10.5 The Customer must deliver all the Customer's Working Documents and Tooling without charge to the Company prior to commencement of the supply of the Goods or Services.
- 10.6 When the Customer requests approval of drawings before commencement of manufacture, shipment may be delayed

if approved drawings are not returned to the Company within fourteen (14) days of receipt by the Customer of such drawings for approval.

11. WARRANTY AND LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

Note: The application of this clause may vary depending on whether or not the Customer is a Consumer.

- 11.1 If the supply of Goods or Services under the Contract is to a Consumer, will apply to this Contract and nothing in the Contract shall be construed as excluding, restricting, or modifying any applicable
- 11.2 Subject to clause 11.1 and any express warranty against defects provided by the Company, the Company excludes all other warranties and conditions (whether implied or otherwise) to the fullest extent permitted by law. Where such a warranty or condition cannot be excluded, the Customer's sole remedy is limited, at the option of the Company, to:
- i) replacement of the relevant Goods or supply of equivalent Goods; or
 - ii) repair of the Goods; or
 - iii) after prior agreement between the Company and the Customer, payment of the cost of replacing or repairing or having the Goods replaced or repaired; or
 - iv) in the case of Services, the provision of the Services again or payment of the cost of having the relevant Services provided again.
- 11.3 Any components of the Goods not manufactured by the Company are subject solely to the warranties (if any) provided by the manufacturer or the third-party supplier to the Company, and the Customer acknowledges that, to the extent permitted by law, the Company gives no warranties for such component parts beyond such manufacturers or suppliers' warranties.
- 11.4 The Customer acknowledges it has relied on its own enquiries to satisfy itself as to the fitness or suitability for the purpose of the Goods or Services.
- 11.5 The Company is not liable to the Customer (or any person claiming through the Customer) for any liability, cost or loss the Customer incurs arising directly or indirectly out of any act or omission of the Company, or use of the Goods or Services, unless caused by the Company's negligence.
- 11.6 Solely for the benefit of the Customer, the Company warrants that new equipment and parts manufactured by it and provided to the Customer shall be free from defects in material and workmanship.
- 11.7 Notwithstanding any other provision to the contrary elsewhere in the Contract, the Company's total cumulative liability for any default whatsoever, whether under the Contract or at law shall under no circumstances exceed 50% of the purchase price paid by the Customer under the contract. In the event that the provisions of this clause are unenforceable for any particular liability, the parties to this Agreement to uphold the provisions of this clause to the full extent allowable by law for any other liability.

12. INDEMNITY

- 12.1 The Customer indemnifies and holds the Company harmless against any liability, cost or loss (including legal costs on a solicitor-client basis and consequential loss) incurred by the Company arising from the Customer's breach of the Contract and from any claim against the Company by any third party, including any customers of the Customer, in connection with the Goods or Services. This may include loss, claim or liability in respect of:
- i) loss of damage to, any goods or property; and
 - ii) any liability to or claims by a third party (including under statute) in respect of loss of, or damage to, any property caused by or arising out of or in connection with the supply of the Goods or Services to the extent caused or contributed to by any act or omission of the Customer, or their Associate, in connection with this supply of Goods or the Contract or any breach of the Contract by the Customer, or their Associates.
- 12.2 It is not necessary for the Company to incur expenses, make payment or contest any costs or expenses before enforcing a right of indemnity conferred by this clause.

13. INSURANCE

- 13.1 Except where the Contract expressly provides to the contrary, all insurance cover in respect of the Goods following their removal from the Company's premises must be arranged by the Customer, or as nominated in the Company's quotation.
- 13.2 The Company reserves the right, at its discretion, to replace, cancel, substitute or vary the terms of an insurance policy it effects. The responsibilities, duties and obligations imposed on the Customer by or under the Contract will not be relieved or in any way affected by any insurance effected by The Company. The Customer must provide, when reasonably requested by The Company, evidence of the insurance applying to the Contract. The Customer acknowledges and agrees that The Company does not assume any duty of care or warrant or make any representation with respect to the content, coverage or adequacy of the Company's' insurances.

14. SUB-CONTRACTING

- 14.1 The Company reserves the right to sub-contract with any other person for the performance on its behalf of any part of the Contract.

15. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

- 15.1 The copyright, patent rights, design rights and all other intellectual property rights in respect of or contained within the Goods or Services, any component part of the Goods or Services, or in any Working Documents or Tooling which have been developed by or on behalf of the Company, remains the property of the Company. Unless expressly provided otherwise in Contract, no transfer to the Customer of any such rights occurs by reason of the supply of the Goods or Services, including circumstances where the price under the Contract includes an amount for designing or producing the Goods or Services.

- 15.2 Unless authorised in writing, the Customer does not have the right to use, adapt, reproduce and modify (and sub license others to use, adapt, reproduce or modify) any and all such Intellectual Property for any purpose whatsoever including any purpose associated with these Terms and Conditions or the project, including further design work, construction of, subsequent repairs or addition to, or alterations of, the Contract or quote, whether in part or in whole.
- 15.3 The Customer indemnifies the Customer from and against any loss suffered or incurred by the Customer, and any claim against the Customer, arising out of or in connection with any actual or alleged infringement of any intellectual property rights created, discovered or coming into existence as a result of, for the purposes of or in connection with, this contract.

16. DEFAULT AND TERMINATION

16.1 The Customer will be in Default if:

- i) payment for the Goods or Services is not received by the Company by the due date for payment;
- ii) it breaches any other term of the Contract, and such breach is not remedied within 14 days of receiving notice from the Company requiring it to do so;
- iii) it commits an Act of Insolvency;
